If these prospects have already purchased an e book from you, ask for their opinion in terms of price. Do that by creating a gross sales web page for the new e-book, but do not embrace a price on that page. One other technique is to test out costs by making a number of duplicate gross sales pages with totally different prices on every page. Be sure your gross sales copy is exactly the same on every web page, and contains your selling-handle sentence. Then work out for every page the conversion ratio between guests to your website and gross sales of your book. This can let you know what your optimum value is.

Ultimately, should you've written a book that solves a downside or presents a new technique, your e book will herald each site visitors and profits.
