Do this by making a gross sales page for the new e-book, but do not include a price on that page. As a substitute, add a lot of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a price to your ebook.

One other strategy is to test out costs by making a variety of duplicate gross sales pages with different costs on every page. Be certain your sales copy is strictly the similar on every web page, and contains your selling-handle sentence. Then determine for each page the conversion ratio between guests to your website and gross sales of your book. This will tell you what your optimum value is.

Finally, if you happen to've written a guide that solves a problem or presents a brand new method, your e book will bring in both site visitors and profits.
